Your guide to winning

Players take a company and move around the board buying the core blocks (patent etc).

Landing on owned blocks requires paying fines

"Chance/ ?" spaces provide random events. Gain or lose Aura Points in secrecy

Forced deal: Swap your company with anyone

Trade in "$". Win in "Aura points" by converting $ and paying transaction cost.

Money is USELESS at the End!
Only Aura Points matter.

Call "Aura Check" anytime to end the game.
The highest Aura Points win.
Runner-up? The player with the least Aura Points!

Q: What if I don't use money for Aura Points?
A: Unconverted money is useless at the end of the game.

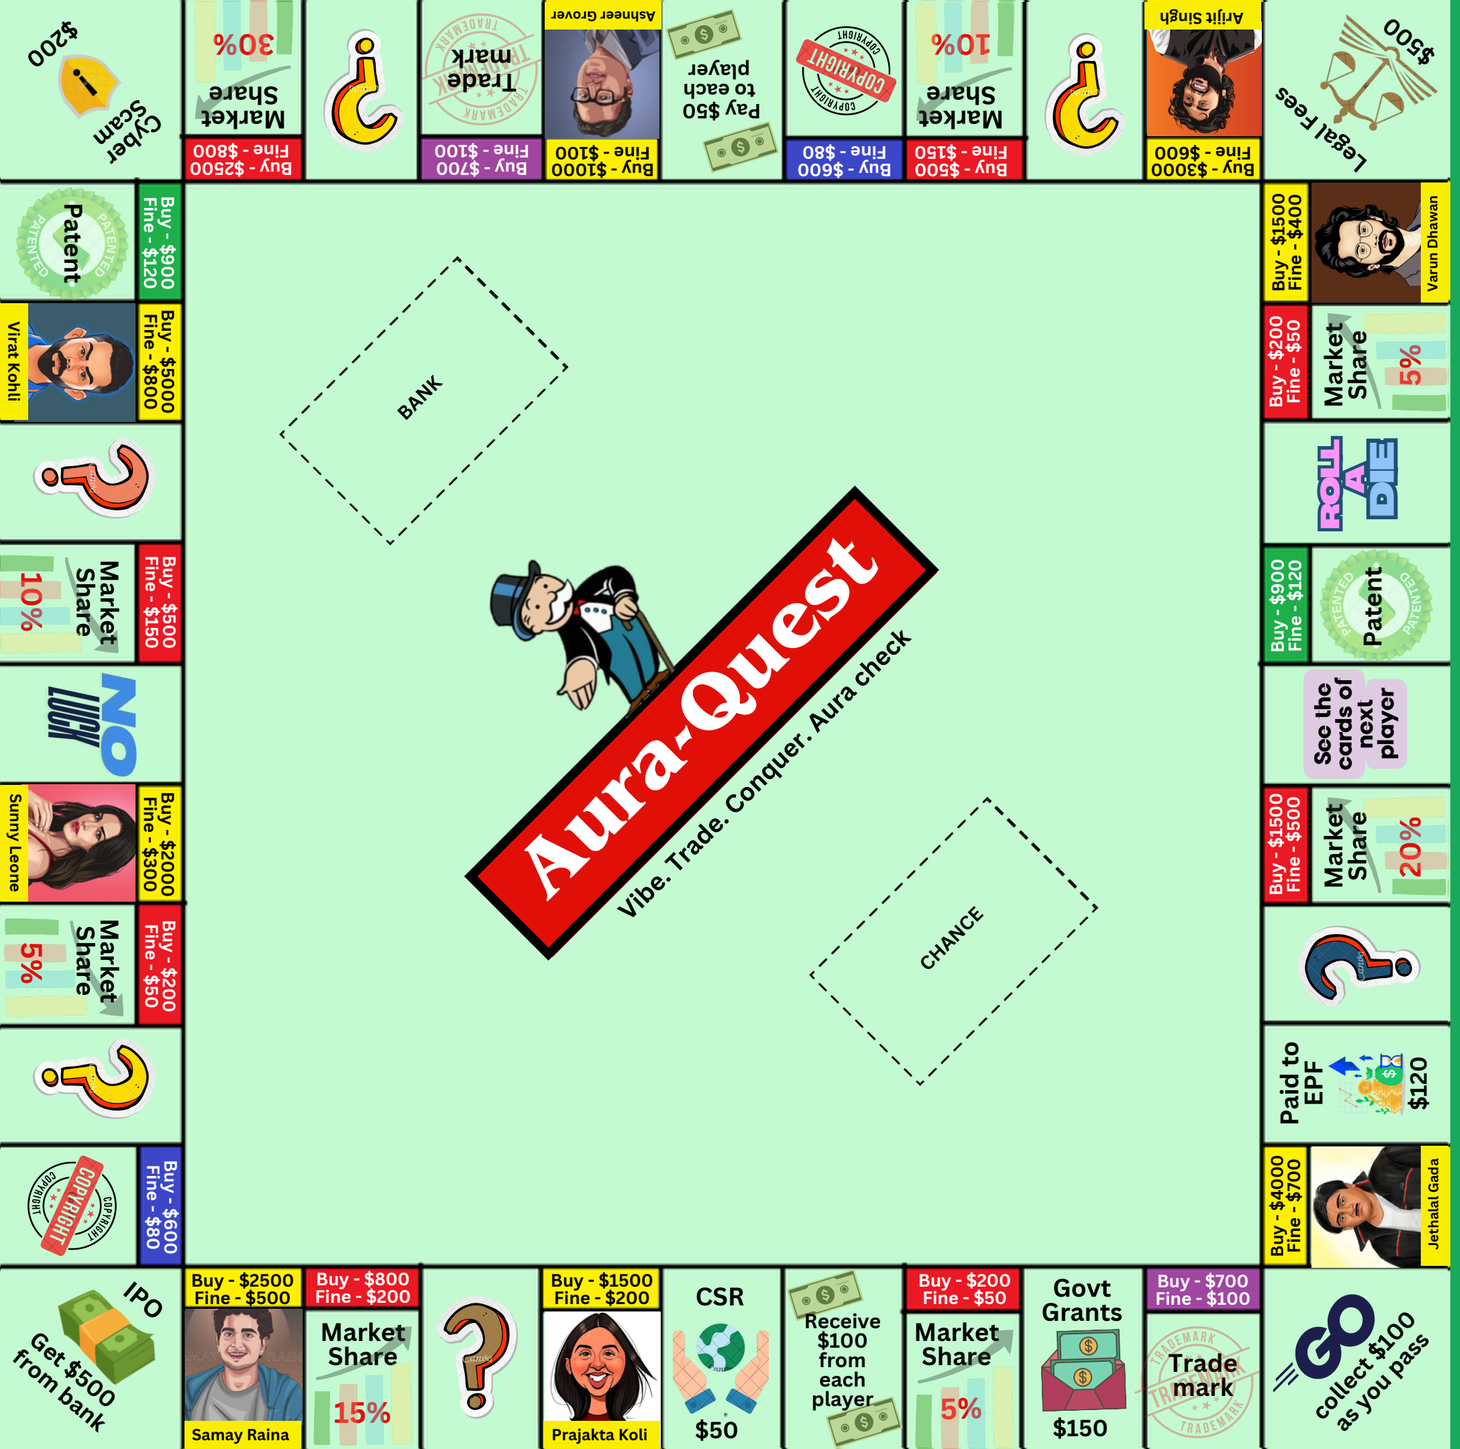

Q: Can I see other players' Aura Points?
A: No, it's hidden, making anticipation a key strategy.

Q: What if I call "Aura Check" but don't win?
A: The game ends, but the highest aura points win

Q: How does "Forced Deal" work?
A: You take over another player's entire company, giving yours.
